

Church Covenant

Having been led, as we believe, by the spirit of God, to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Savior and, on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, we do now, in the presence of God, and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another, as one body in Christ.

We engage, therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit, to walk together in Christian love ; to strive for the advancement of this church, in knowledge, holiness, and comfort; to promote its prosperity and spirituality ; to sustain its worship, ordinance, discipline, and doctrines; to contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expenses of the church, the relief of the poor, and the spread of the gospel through all nations.

We also engage to maintain family and secret devotions; to religiously educate our children; to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintances; to walk circumspectly in the world; to be just in our dealings, faithful in our engagements, and exemplary in our deportment; to avoid all tattling, backbiting, and excessive anger; to abstain from the sale and use of destructive drugs or intoxicating drinks as a beverage, to shun pornography; and to be zealous in our efforts to advance the kingdom of our Savior.

We further engage to watch over one another in brotherly love; to remember one another in prayer; to aid one another in sickness and distress; to cultivate Christian sympathy in feeling and Christian courtesy in speech; to be slow to take offense, but always ready for reconciliation, and mindful of the rules of our Savior to secure it without delay.

We moreover engage that when we remove from this place we will, as soon as possible , unite with some other church, where we can carry out the spirit of this covenant and the principles of God's Word.

How do I become a Christian?

The first time you were born into a family, you were born as a tiny baby. Even then, God knew you, loved you, and wanted you to belong to his family.

In God's family there is no sin. Anything that you do that isn't pleasing to God is sin. Sin keeps you from being a part of God's family.

But God has made a way for you to become His child. Because God loves you, He sent His Son, Jesus, to take the punishment for your sin.

Why? Because God wants you to know:

1. You need to be saved.

"For all have sinned..." Romans 3:23

"For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord" Romans 6:23

2. You cannot save yourself.

"Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us..." Titus 3:5

3. Christ died to save you.

"But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." Romans 5:8

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." John 3:16

4. Repent and believe the gospel message.

"I tell you, Nay: but except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish." Luke 13:3

"That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved." Romans 10:9
